

Sally Santangelo
Executive Director
CNY Fair Housing

Sally Santangelo is the Executive Director of CNY Fair Housing, a non-profit organization working to eliminate housing discrimination in Central and Northern New York. Sally started with the organization as a Fair Housing Investigator and later became the Director of Enforcement. Prior to her work at CNY Fair Housing, she performed constituent services in the district office for Congressman Dan Maffei. Sally is a graduate of Onondaga Community College and SUNY New Paltz and has her Masters in Political Science from SUNY Albany. She serves as the Co-Chair of the Advocacy Committee of the Human Services Leadership Council of CNY and serves on the Board of Home HeadQuarters, the Advisory Board of the Housing and Homeless Coalition of CNY, and the Enforcement Advisory Committee of the National Fair Housing Alliance.
