

Fair Housing Recommendations

Book Recommendations

by Bryan Greene, NAR's Director of Federal Fair Housing Policy:

- The Color of Law by Richard Rothstein
- American Apartheid by Douglas S. Massey
- Race for Profit by Keeanga-Yamahtta Taylor
- Arc of Justice by Kevin Boyle
- Wilmington's Lie by David Zucchino

For additional book recommendations, book reviews, and author interviews go to: <https://www.nar.realtor/fair-housing/fair-housing-book-recommendations>

Podcast Recommendations from NAR

- *Building Stuyvesant Town: A Mid-Century Controversy* (62 minutes)
- *Location! Location! Location!* (35 minutes)
- *The redline: Racial disparities in lending* (50 minutes)
- *House Rules* (55 minutes)

Article Recommendations from NAR

- *Separated by Design: Why Affordable Housing is Built in Areas with High Crime, Few Jobs, and Struggling Schools* by Jacqueline Rabe Thomas
- *When the Dream of Owning a Home Became a Nightmare* by Keeanga-Yamahtta Taylor
- *Living Apart: How the Government Betrayed a Landmark Civil Rights Law* by Nikole Hannah-Jones
- *Staggering Loss of Black Wealth During Subprime Scandal Continues Unabated* by Nathalie Baptiste
- *The Case for Reparations* by Ta-Nehisi Coates