

Dale Klein, CRP, GMS

Managing Director, Head of Business Development
Continuum International

Dale is the Managing Director, Head of Business Development at Continuum International, and has been with the firm since its inception in 2003. She manages Continuum's premier clients through all phases of the relocation process, as well as the complex logistics of each relocation program.

Dale has been in the relocation services industry for 30+ years, focusing on all facets of the employee relocation cycle including household goods moving, corporate housing, school assistance, home search, destination services, repatriation, immigration, taxation and expense management services.

Dale is a member of the Worldwide Employee Relocation Council and holds the Certified Relocation Professional ("CRP") and Global Mobility Specialist ("GMS") designations. Dale holds the position of Global Director for the Connecticut SHRM State Council.