

Ann Garti

Former CEO of OCAR

Former COO of HGAR and HGMLS

Ann Garti was a REALTOR® association executive for more than 40 years. In May of 1980, Ann became the executive officer and subsequently the CEO of the then Orange County Board of REALTORS®, later to be renamed the Orange County Association of REALTORS®. She led the organization for 31 years and eight months, growing the organization from a few hundred members to an entity that had as many as 3500 members.

In January 2012, after being a critical part of OCAR's merger with the Rockland and Westchester associations, Ann served as COO of Hudson Gateway Association of REALTORS® and Hudson Gateway Multiple Listing Service.

Ann holds the RCE (REALTOR® Association Certified Executive) designation. She served as Chair of the NYSAR Association Executive's Forum as well as on several other NYSAR committees.

Outside of her role with the REALTOR® Association, Ann has served on the Board of Habitat for Humanity of Greater Newburgh.
