

ANDREW SMITH

Deputy Executive Director at Westchester Residential Opportunities

As Deputy Executive Director at WRO, Andrew supervises our housing counseling staff and participates in the overall management of the organization. Andrew also leads our fair housing department, including management of WRO's fair housing outreach, investigation, and enforcement activities. Andrew joined WRO's fair housing department at the beginning of 2017 and coordinated fair lending and fair housing testing programs for WRO before becoming Deputy Executive Director in late 2018.

Prior to joining WRO, Andrew was a corporate partner with the law firm Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP in New York City, specializing in mergers and acquisitions. Andrew has a BA from Brown University and a JD from Columbia Law School. Andrew lives in Hastings-on-Hudson and serves on the board of several community not-for-profits, including the Hastings-on-Hudson Affordable Housing Development Fund.
