

ELIZABETH VIESELMAYER

Senior Director of Corporate
Foundation & Community
Feeding Westchester

Elisabeth Vieselmeyer is the Senior Director of Corporate, Foundation & Community at Feeding Westchester, the county's largest nonprofit hunger relief organization and proud HGAR Foundation grantee. With a mission to nourish our neighbors in the fight against hunger, Feeding Westchester is at the heart of a network of 300 community partners and meal programs delivering over 19 million pounds of food annually. Elisabeth's commitment to local nonprofits spans nearly 20 years, including Director of Development at Volunteer New York!, as well as fundraising roles at The Children's Village, Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, and the American Heart Association. Elisabeth is a Certified Fundraising Executive (CFRE) and has an Executive Leadership Certificate from the Support Center for Nonprofit Management and Certificate in Fundraising and Board Management from Purchase College. She serves as a volunteer on the Board of the Association of Development Officers and co-leader of Girl Scout Troop 2837. Elisabeth is a resident of Waccabuc, where she lives with her husband, two daughters and a mini dachshund.
