

JEFF TURNER

International Speaker
Co-Founder, Tangilla

Jeff Turner specializes in helping real estate technology startups understand and navigate the North American real estate market. He is also an internationally recognized speaker on topics at the intersection of technology trends and human behavior.

As founder & CEO, Jeff led the digital pre-media firm JJ Grace onto Inc. Magazine's list of the 500 Fastest-Growing Companies. He has served as a Founder, President, or CEO of multiple real estate technology companies, including the Australia-based RealSatisfied, acquired by Placester in 2016.

Today, Jeff co-founded the recently launched REALTOR® Association Management Platform, Tangilla, is an advisor to Venture MLS, and mentors multiple real estate technology startups.
